Additional allegations:

The officers on the scene (5-6 white males in total) were "rude" to [REDACTED] and his family. [REDACTED] was unable to describe how the officers were being rude except that the officers told the family members to stay back. [REDACTED] felt that the officers "rushed" him out of the house, but related that they gave him time to put on some clothes and retrieve his cane and a brace for his leg.
